OUR SPEAKER

Dr. Tamara Clunis,

Vice President of Academic Affairs, Amarillo College, Texas

Dr. Tamara Clunis brings diverse experience as leader of the guided pathways work at Amarillo College, a community college named among the top 150 in the nation.

As Vice President of Academic Affairs at Amarillo College, Dr. Clunis brings 20+ years of professional practice that has earned her nationally recognized achievements in student success, developmental and adult education, and guided pathways. In 2019, she was the recipient of the AVID for Higher Education Lighthouse Leaders award. Currently, Dr. Clunis is leading a full-scale reform to accelerate developmental education completion.

Dr. Clunis' experience includes coordinating the statewide adult education professional development program at Texas State University while teaching developmental reading at Austin Community College. Over her career, Dr. Clunis has become a tireless advocate for student access, participation, and success in higher education. Upon receiving her doctorate in Adult, Professional, and Community Education from Texas State University, Dr. Clunis moved to New Jersey to direct student success initiatives around curriculum redesign and new program implementation at the United States Military Academy Preparatory School. Her career experiences shaped her instructional and administrative philosophy and achievements as state director of adult and developmental education at the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board. In addition, Dr. Clunis has worked as a consultant for AVID for Higher Education since 2013, bringing their comprehensive and holistic support for student success into her work.
