

STUDENT NEEDS SURVEY

COVID-19 PANDEMIC

Texas Association of Community Colleges

The COVID-19 pandemic has caused major disruption in the lives of Texans; college students are no exception. The Texas Association of Community Colleges created a survey to better understand how community college students are handling the COVID-19 outbreak, what challenges they are facing, and whether or not these students will persist towards their academic goals.

DELAY GRADUATION

26%

of students are VERY LIKELY
to delay graduation

19%

of students are SOMEWHAT LIKELY
to delay graduation

21%

of students are VERY LIKELY to take fewer classes

16%

of students lack regular
ACCESS TO A COMPUTER

57%

of students struggle to find a QUIET PLACE/TIME TO STUDY

47%

of students cannot always
ACCESS THE INTERNET

57%

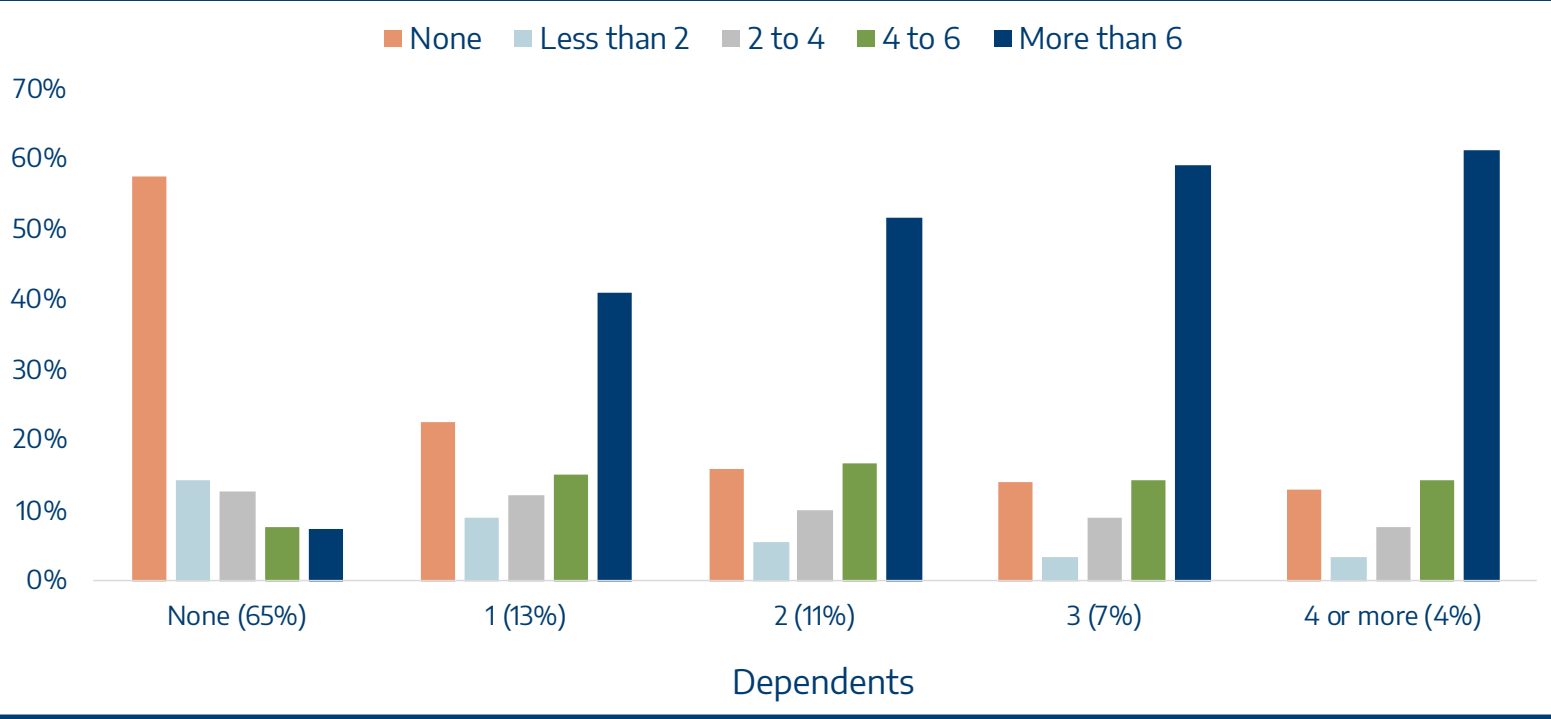

of students reported
LOSING INCOME AND/OR WORK HOURS

73%

of students would have difficulty ACQUIRING $500 IN CASH/CREDIT
within 30 days

ADDITIONAL DAILY CARE HOURS BY NUMBER OF DEPENDENTS

44%

of students are likely to experience some level of FOOD INSECURITY within 30 days

47%

of students report having household HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE

RESPONDENT DEMOGRAPHICS

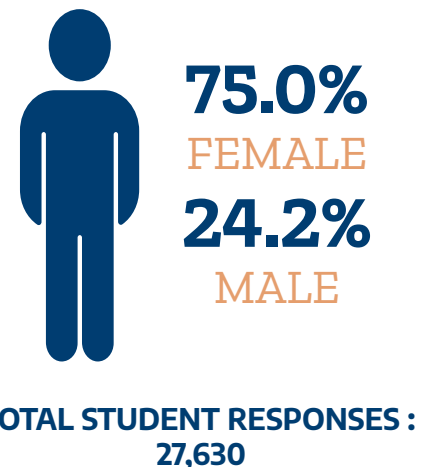

RACE

AGE

GENDER

Infographic Data Source: TACC Student Needs Survey 2020